

The gingerbread man

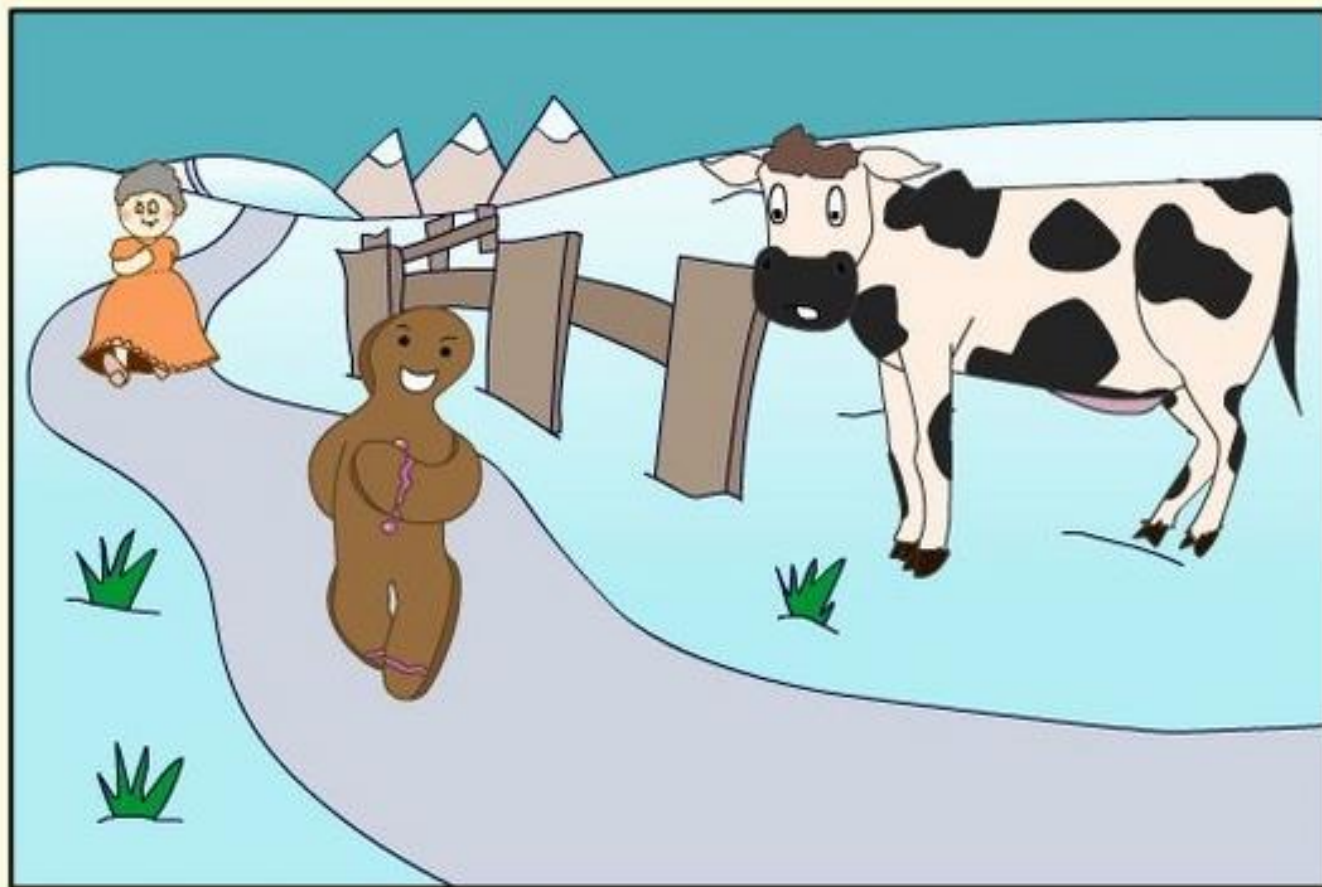

One day a little old lady baked a gingerbread man.

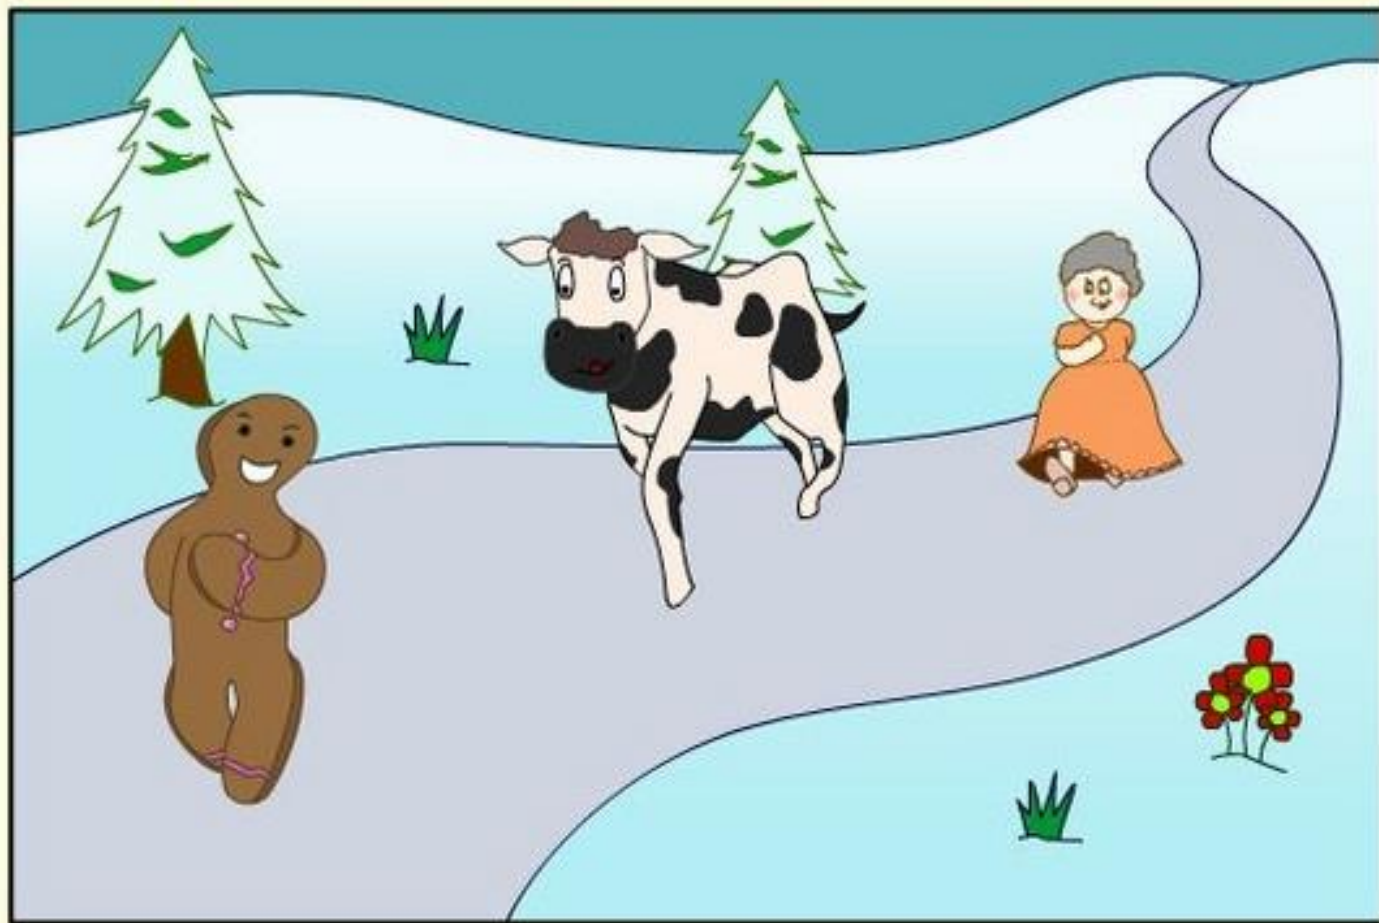

He jumped off the cookie sheet and started to run.

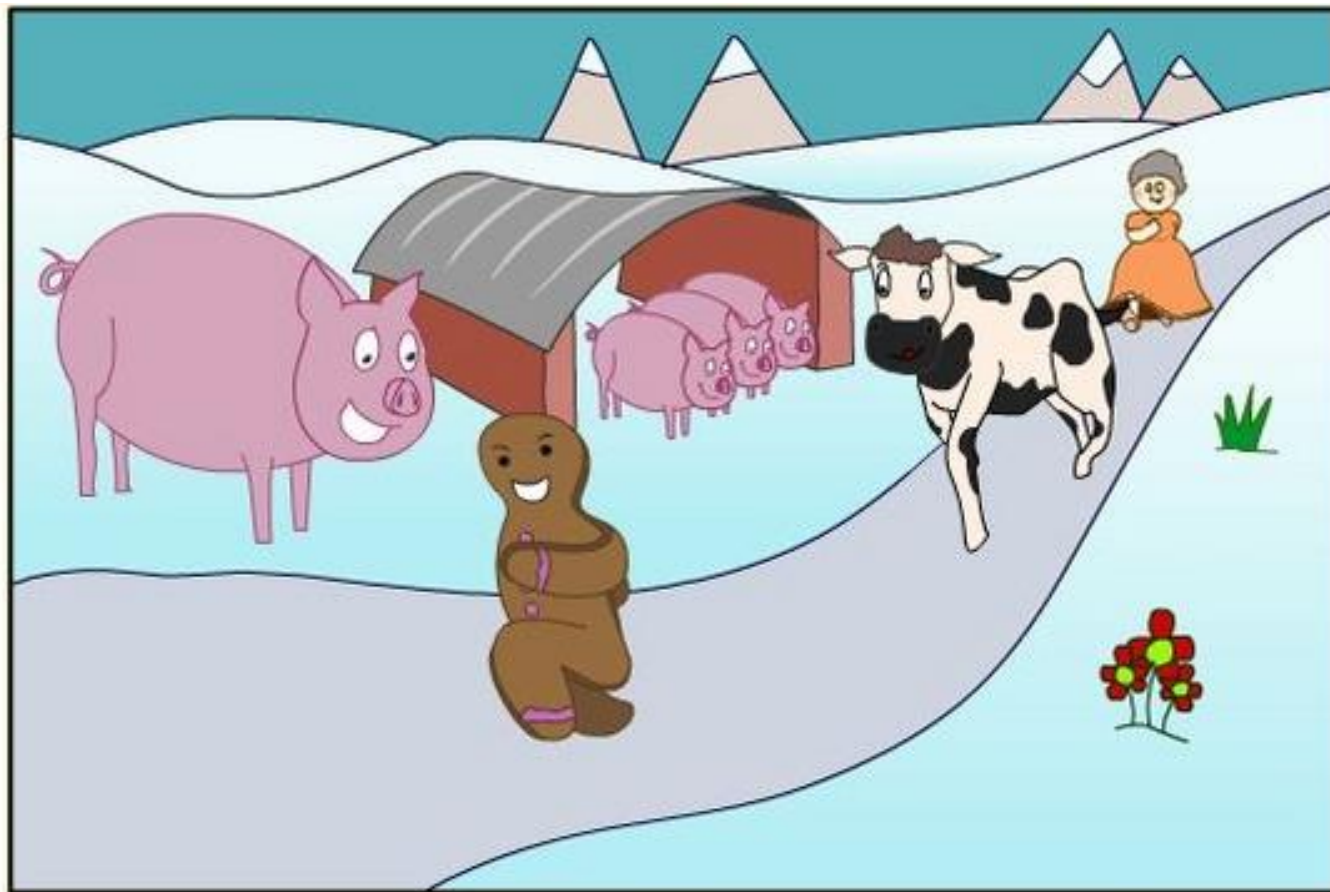

He ran out of the house and laughed "Run, run, as fast as you can. You can't catch me. I'm the gingerbread man!". The old lady chased him.

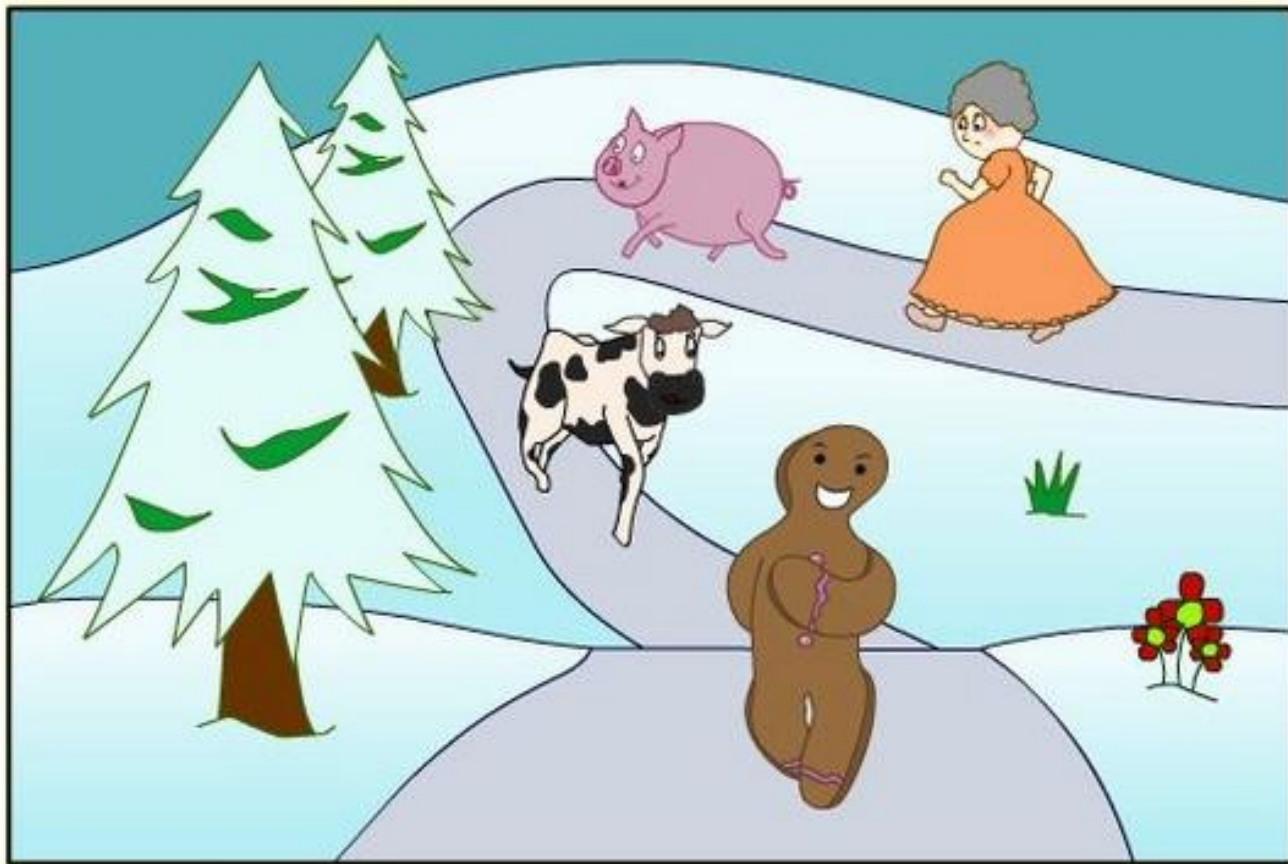

He met a cow and the cow said "You look very good to eat". The gingerbread man laughed "Run, run, as fast as you can. You can't catch me. I'm the gingerbread man!"

The cow and the old lady chased him.

He met a pig and the pig said "You look very good to eat". The gingerbread man laughed "Run, run, as fast as you can. You can't catch me. I'm the gingerbread man!"

The pig, the cow, and the old lady chased him.

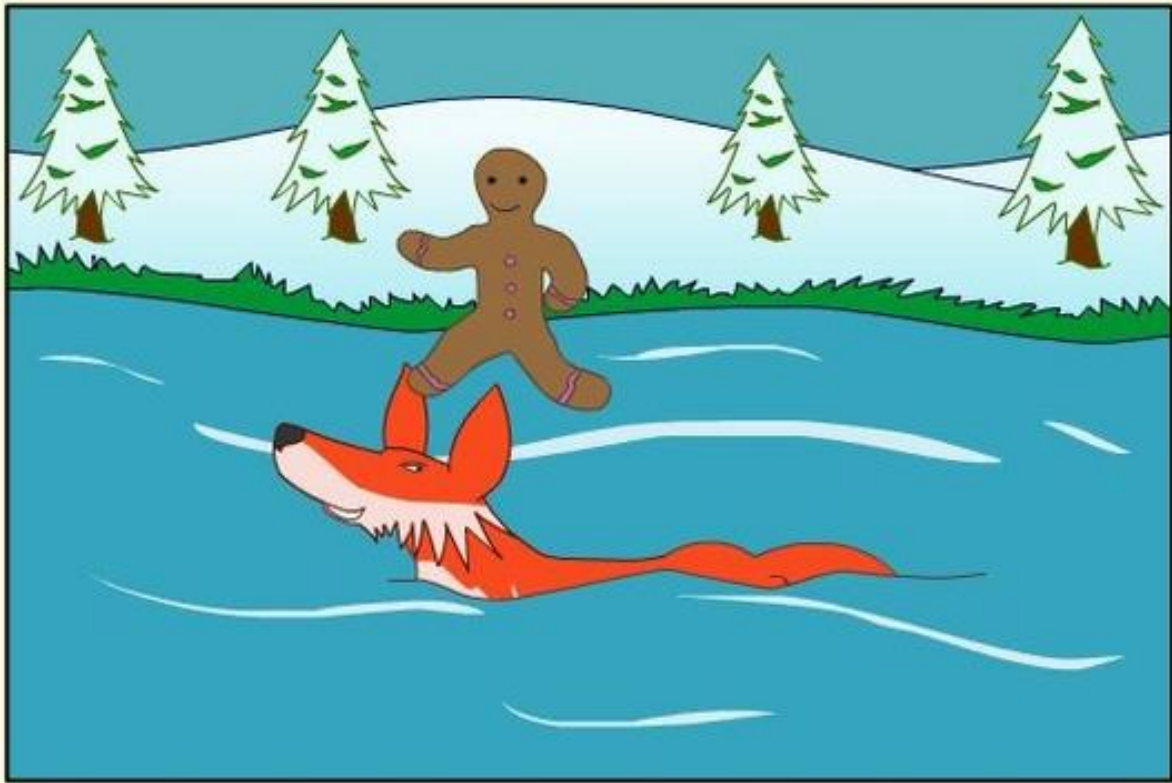

He came to a river and met a fox. "Oh, how will I cross the river?!" cried the gingerbread man. "Jump on my tail. I will take you across." said the sly fox.

The gingerbread man did.

The fox said "You are too heavy for my tail. Jump on my back." The gingerbread man did.

Soon the fox said "You will get wet on my back. Jump on my head." The gingerbread man did.

On the other side of the river, the fox tossed the gingerbread man in the air and nipped off his foot.

Then he swallowed him whole. That was the end of the gingerbread man.
